Dr. Ellie Pittman, our lead veterinarian, graduated from the Ohio State University College of Veterinary Medicine. Her interests include sports medicine, reproduction, and surgery, as well as equine medicine. In Dr. Pittman's free time, she enjoys spending time with her horse, Marilyn, her golden retrievers, Einstein and Rowan and competing in horse shows.

Our friendly and experienced technicians are able to provide low stress handling of your pets, and are able to answer many of your questions about procedures and medicines, preventative care and diseases. They are even able to give you many tips and hint about how to give medications and groom.
